

Debtor and Committee Representation in Chapter 11

Effective, successful representation of debtors and committees requires in-depth knowledge and specific legal skills. The Financial Restructuring and Insolvency practice of Troutman Sanders includes lawyers with experience advising debtors and committees of creditors and equity holders in significant bankruptcy cases across the country, including in Delaware, Georgia, New York and Texas. Our industry experience is equally broad, and includes matters involving for-profit corporations and not-for-profits in the following sectors:

- Airlines
- Apparel and jewelry
- Automobiles and farm equipment
- Chemicals
- Consumer goods, toys and furniture
- Department stores, supermarkets and retailers
- Electronics
- Financial services
- Food, beverages and alcohol
- Healthcare and mental health
- Manufacturing
- Office equipment and supplies
- Photographic equipment
- Real estate, construction and building products
- Restaurants
